

Jasmine Le Veaux
Counsel
Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf
New York, NY

Ms. Le Veaux is a seasoned litigator, focusing on the areas of complex commercial litigation as well as employment and labor law. As a member of the firm's transportation practice group, Ms. Le Veaux counsels clients on regulatory compliance and various types of transportation-related agreements, contractual disputes and procurements. In addition, she drafts and analyzes proposed legislation and regulations on behalf of clients for compliance with Federal and local laws relevant to the transportation industry.

She has published numerous articles in the transportation arena including The Disruptive Transportation Technology Movement - A Litigation Primer & Roadmap (July 2014).