

Jason R. Mischel

Counsel

Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, New York, NY.

Jason Mischel's practice focuses on transportation law, including wheelchair accessibility, accommodations for persons with disabilities; ADA and regulatory compliance; legislative drafting; real estate; and others. Prior to joining Windels Marx, he was Acting Commissioner and former Deputy Commissioner and General Counsel of the Mayor's Office for People With Disabilities. Mr. Mischel served as an Advisor to the Mayor on disability-related issues for nearly a decade and advised the NYC Department of Transportation and TLC on all disability related transportation law and policy issues. During his tenure, Commissioner Mischel's accomplishments included a wide range of initiatives including the Metropolitan Transportation Authority's pilot program that allows Access-a-Ride passengers to use yellow taxicabs for pick up and drop-off using pre-paid debit cards, and many more.
