

February 23 – Litigation – LI1
Litigating Pensions

SPEAKER BIOS

City Attorney Cathy Hampton is the Chief Legal Officer for the City of Atlanta, where she leads an 83-member Department of Law. She provides legal advice to the Mayor, Atlanta City Council and other City Officials. Ms. Hampton is responsible for all civil legal matters for the City and its 7,000 employees, including the world’s busiest airport, Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport.

Chief Counsel Robin Shahar joined the Law Department in May 1993. She received her undergraduate degree from Tufts University and her law degree from Emory University’s School of Law where she attended as a Woodruff Fellow.

Assistant City Attorney Seth Eisenberg joined the Law Department in September 2013. He received his undergraduate degree from Emory University and his law degree from the Georgia State University College of Law.