Proportionality & eDiscovery Legal Hold

SPEAKER BIOS

Pete Haskel is a Dallas executive assistant city attorney, where he is chief of the General Litigation Section, and is a frequent speaker on litigation, bankruptcy, domestic terrorism, legal ethics, legal technology and other issues. Among his other professional public service activities, Pete chairs both the Technology Law Section and the e-Discovery/Legal Hold Working Group of IMLA, writes a regular column in IMLA's bi-monthly Municipal Lawyer Magazine, is former co-chair of the Dallas Bar Association's Legal Ethics Committee, a former member of the State Bar of Texas' Administration of Rules of Evidence Committee, and runs the "wildly popular" CityAttorneyTech Yahoo discussion group, (home page: <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/CityAttorneyTech>), for which he is always seeking new members. To join send an email to cityattorneytech-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. Pete is also an active member of the Sedona Conference's working group on Electronic Document Retention and Production. He is admitted to practice in New York and Texas, and received both his B.A. and J.D. degrees from Columbia.
