

November 18– Personnel

SPEAKER BIOS

JOHN J. CLOHERTY III is a Partner in the Boston firm of Pierce, Davis & Perritano LLP, where he previously served as Managing Partner for a term of seven years. He is a cum laude graduate of Suffolk University Law School, where he served on the editorial board of the Suffolk University Law Review. He is also a cum laude graduate of Providence College. He is admitted to practice before the U.S. District Court for the Districts of Massachusetts and Rhode Island; the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit; the U.S. Supreme Court; and the state courts of Massachusetts and Rhode Island. Attorney Cloherty served as a law clerk to the Honorable Donald F. Shea of the Supreme Court of Rhode Island. Before entering private practice he served as an assistant public defender for the state of Rhode Island and assistant corporation counsel for the City of Boston. He has tried numerous civil and criminal cases in both state and federal courts in Massachusetts and Rhode Island. He was lead counsel in numerous reported decisions in the First Circuit Court of Appeals, the Massachusetts Appeals Court, and the Rhode Island Supreme Court. He is a published author in Massachusetts legal periodicals and a frequent lecturer in Continuing Legal Education seminars. His practice is concentrated in municipal law, civil rights, employment practices, discrimination, and product liability litigation.

Dan Crean, of Crean Law Office in Pembroke, New Hampshire, has practiced municipal law for more than thirty-five years and has been on the adjunct faculty of the University of New Hampshire Law School and Graduate School. He was multi-term officer of the N.H. Bar Association's Municipal & Governmental Law Section, and founded the N.H. Municipal Lawyers Association, of which he is now Executive Director. He is IMLA's N.H. State Chair and chairs its Personnel Section. He is an IMLA Fellow and received IMLA's 2012 William Thornton Faculty Award. Dan has written for numerous legal publications contributed two chapters to the new ABA publication, Town and Gown: Legal Strategies for Effective Collaboration. Dan is a veteran CLE panelist and regularly presents local government seminars.