Chris Halsor is a Colorado attorney, former 14 year prosecutor and founder of Understanding Legal Marijuana, LLC. Mr. Halsor spent eight years as a line prosecutor working in a large Denver suburban DA's Office. Mr. Halsor then spent six years working for the Colorado District Attorney's Office where he served as Traffic Safety Resource Prosecutor (TSRP) providing training and technical assistance to Colorado law enforcement and prosecutors surrounding all facets of impaired driving. In this capacity he has become one of the country's foremost experts on marijuana impaired driving. He has also been on the front lines of Colorado's experiment with legal marijuana and developed an expertise in the many different and complicated facets of legal marijuana, including having served as a member of one of Colorado's regulatory committees addressing edibles. He also lectures and provides conference presentations around the country on the subject of legal marijuana. In his current capacity, he provides training and consulting to policy makers, regulators and public safety officials at local, state and federal levels, as well as private industry concerning legal marijuana. Mr. Halsor is also an Adjunct Professor of Law at the University of Denver Sturm College of Law.
