

September 28– First Amendment – C11

SPEAKER BIOS

Deborah Fox is the Chair of the Meyers Nave’s First Amendment Practice Group. She is one of California’s foremost experts on First Amendment issues affecting the public sector. Her practice includes trial and appellate work in both state and federal courts on First Amendment cases relating to regulation of speech, solicitation, adult businesses, religious institutions (under the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act; “RLUIPA”), newsracks, billboards, and signs and banners in the public right-of-way.

Margaret (Meg) Rosequist focuses her practice on trial and appellate work in both state and federal courts with an emphasis on complex First Amendment issues. Prior to joining Meyers Nave, Meg was an associate with Fox & Sohagi where she handled cases involving procedural and substantive due process claims, equal protection causes of action, takings issues, First Amendment claims, and environmental claims. Meg received her JD from University of California at Hastings College of Law. During law school, Meg interned with the Alameda County District Attorney’s Office, served as a certified law student representing indigent clients at Hastings Civil Justice Clinic, and was a member of the Hastings International Law Review.