

April 12—Office Management

G. Foster Mills was the Managing Attorney of the New York City Law Department, a position he had held for over 17 years. He was responsible for the operation of a law office of 730 lawyers and 700 support staff with a budget of $180 million. From 1985 to 1997 Mr. Mills was the Deputy Chief of the Department's Contract and Real Estate Division, and for a portion of that time was New York City's Chief Procurement Officer, responsible for the procurement of $7.5 billion in goods and services annually. He is the recipient of the Corporation Counsel Award for Distinguished Legal Service (2003), was former President of the International Municipal Lawyer's Association (2015), and the County Attorneys Association of the State of New York (2010). Mr. Mills received a B.A. from the State University of New York at Stony Brook (1975) and a J.D. from Boston University (1978).

Charles W. Thompson, Jr. is the Executive Director and General Counsel of the International Municipal Lawyers Association. Prior to being appointed to this position Mr. Thompson served as County Attorney for Montgomery County, Maryland from 1995 to 2006. For the previous 17 years, Mr. Thompson served as County Attorney for Carroll County, Maryland. Mr. Thompson received a bachelor's degree in history from Virginia Military Institute and earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Baltimore School of Law. In addition to serving as President of the Carroll County Bar Association, Mr. Thompson served as Chairman of the Board of the State and Local Government Law Section of the Maryland State Bar Association, and as Chairman and a member of the Committee on Ethics. Mr. Thompson also served on the Board of Directors and as President of the County Civil Attorneys group in the Maryland Association of Counties. Mr. Thompson is currently serving as an adjunct professor at the George Washington University teaching State and Local Government Law. Mr. Thompson is admitted to practice in the U.S. District Court for Maryland, the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the U.S. Supreme Court.
