

NGL SERIES

Feb 20- Public Works/ New Government Lawyer Series

Public Contracts and Bidding – Avoiding Delays and Mitigating Liability

SPEAKER:

Majeed G. Makhlof is a member of Berns, Ockner & Greenberger, LLC and is a Panel Member (Commercial, Construction) at the American Arbitration Association. He is an experienced litigator and a transactional lawyer and concentrates his practice on complex business litigation, real-estate development and transactions, public-private partnerships and economic development, land use, construction, zoning, and public and municipal law matters. Mr. Makhlof served approximately four years as Cuyahoga County's first permanent director of law, during which time he built the law department for Ohio's largest county. He is admitted to practice in Ohio, New York, and the District of Columbia, as well as various federal district and appellate courts, including the U.S. Supreme Court. Mr. Makhlof is a member of the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association's Board of Trustees and serves on its Executive Committee. He earned his B.A. degree from Hiram College and his J.D. degree from The Ohio State University College of Law.