

February 22—Courts

SMART- San Diego Misdemeanants At-Risk Track

SPEAKERS:

Lara Easton is the Chief of the Neighborhood Prosecution and Collaborative Courts Unit (NPU) at the San Diego City Attorney's Office. Ms. Easton graduated summa cum laude from San Diego State University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice Administration. She received her Juris Doctorate from California Western School of Law in San Diego, graduating cum laude.

Ms. Easton joined the City Attorney's Office in 2009 where she worked in many units, including the NPU, working closely with law enforcement on issues that impact the community as a Neighborhood Prosecutor. As Chief of NPU, she oversees the City Attorney's Collaborative Courts and Alternative Sentencing Programs including: Behavioral Health Court, Drug Court, Veterans Treatment Court, Homeless Court/Stand Down, Beach Area Community Court, the Community Justice Initiative, the Prostitution Impact Panel, and the San Diego Misdemeanants At-Risk Track Program.

Natasha Robertson is a Deputy City Attorney with the San Diego City Attorney's Office. She joined the office in 2012, and is currently assigned to the Neighborhood Prosecution & Collaborative Courts Unit. Her assignments include the Community Justice Initiative (CJI) and the San Diego Misdemeanants At-Risk Track (SMART) program. She graduated with a BA in International Relations from James Madison College at Michigan State University and a J.D. from the University of San Diego.