Impact of Social Media Networking on Cities

SPEAKERS:

Cindy J. Crosby – I have practiced municipal law my entire legal career. Like most government lawyers it is almost easier to say what I have not done versus list all the various projects I have advised on. However, my primary focus has been land use and economic development, including defending the City of El Paso, Texas' board of adjustment in district court. I have been appointed as the City Attorney for the City of Wimberley, Texas and worked for the law firm of Bickerstaff, Heath, Delgado Acosta. At the firm I advised cities, counties and school districts on a myriad of issues. Currently I am a division chief overseeing open government and ethics issues for the City of Austin, Texas.

Roberta "Robin" Cross currently works as the Township Attorney for The Woodlands Township, Texas. She has over eighteen years' experience working for local governments and was recognized as an IMLA Fellow in 2013. She has also worked as in-house counsel for a police labor union and for the EEOC, as a trial attorney. She is licensed to practice in Texas and admitted all of its federal courts, the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals and the U.S. Supreme Court. She has been Board-certified in Labor and Employment Law since 1992 by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. She was appointed as Vice-President of IMLA's Personnel Section in the fall of 2015. She enjoys employment law, among other things, because "you can't make this stuff up."
