The City and the Cop: Representing Both Without Harming Either

SPEAKER BIO

John Wilkerson is a Staff Attorney with the Arkansas Municipal League and has been since 2007. He started with the League while in law school and was promoted to Staff Attorney upon graduation from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. In that time he has handled all manner of civil rights cases. His primary case load, however, focuses on officer involved shootings. He has tried Federal jury & bench trials and has argued before the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals nearly a dozen times. This year he began an additional role as lobbyist for the Municipal League at the Arkansas Legislature. He is married to Zara Wilkerson and has two children.
