

May 22- Ethics; Technology
“I Never Metadata I didn’t like”

SPEAKER:

Peter Haskel is the attorney of counsel for the Bojorquez Law Firm PC. Pete is an experienced civil and criminal litigator in federal and state courts. For the past eight years, he has supervised other litigators and maintained a docket of high-stakes cases as an Executive Assistant City Attorney and Chief of General Litigation for the City of Dallas. Pete often speaks with and assists lawyers on diverse litigation-related subjects such as police and firefighter pension system disputes, civil litigation procedure, evidence, pretrial discovery including electronic discovery, bankruptcy, criminal investigations, and paper terrorism. He received his Doctor of Jurisprudence from Columbia University Law School in New York City and his Bachelor of Arts in American History at Columbia College. Pete also served as a Navy officer and attorney in the U.S. Navy JAG Corps from 1974 to 1981. Pete is chair of the International Municipal Lawyers Association Technology Law Section and lectures nationwide on technology law issues, including the use of technology in legal practice.