

May 3 – Municipal Finance Enforcement Updates

SPEAKER:

Robert Doty participated as legal counsel, investment banker and financial advisor to securities issuers for more than 45 years in billions of dollars of successful municipal bond offerings, secondary offerings of municipal securities portfolios, workouts of defaulted bonds, and corporate finance transactions benefiting local governments and private corporations in approximately two dozen states. He continues to serve as consultant to, and municipal bond expert witness on municipal finance in consultation with, legal counsel to municipal securities issuers, underwriters, municipal advisors, bond counsel, trustees, investors and governmental agencies. In addition to other market roles, Mr. Doty has served as General Counsel to the Government Finance Officers Association, and served as a member of the GFOA Disclosure Task Force from the mid-1970s to 1991. He has served on the Board of Governors of the National Federation of Municipal Analysts and as a member of NFMA Disclosure Committees. He currently serves as Co-Chair of the Section on Economic Development/Finance and Securities of the International Municipal Lawyers Association. In his various roles, Mr. Doty has worked with several industry committees in the preparation of recognized and authoritative municipal securities disclosure guidance for issuers, underwriters and other participants.
