

May 4 – Police – PO5

Law Enforcement's Dealing with Persons of Diminished capacity to include the mentally ill, the emotionally disturbed and suicidal persons. A post San Francisco v. Sheehan viewpoint.

SPEAKER BIO

Jack Ryan is a retired captain of the Providence Police Department in Rhode Island. Jack went to Suffolk University Law School in Boston, Massachusetts where he studied under the tutelage of well-known section 1983 Professor of Law, Karen Blum. Over the last 20 years Jack has continued his study of section 1983 as it relates to law enforcement liability. Jack provides training to law enforcement as well as attorneys throughout the United States with respect to this rapidly evolving area of governmental law. Jack also provides consultation, largely as a law enforcement practices consultant to attorneys throughout the United States. Through Jack's role as the Co-Director of the Legal and Liability Risk Management Institute in Indianapolis, Indiana, Jack provides policy research and writing services as well as auditing services and consultation to law enforcement agencies throughout the United States. Jack has been published in numerous articles and manuals written for law enforcement throughout the country.