IMLA's 80th Annual Conference - Institute for Local Government Lawyers
Rio All Suite Hotel – Las Vegas, Nevada
Saturday, October 3, 2015

INSTITUTE FOR LOCAL GOVERNMENT LAWYERS —

The Institute for Local Government Lawyers (ILGL) is an beginners-level program geared towards law students, attorneys new to local government, as well as seasoned attorneys who need a “refresher” in various general topics of local government law. Presenters are law school professors and/or local government lawyers with a vast amount of experience throughout the United States. The presentations will provide a broad overview on a number of topics of interest to local government attorneys and will be in a classroom-type setting.

The tentative program for this year's ILGL is forthcoming.

The fee for this event is $150. This fee includes the programming, a brown bag type lunch as well as a binder of materials associated with the presentation. If you have any questions regarding ILGL Programming please contact Tukie Falade at tukiefalade@imla.org.
